Read Exodus 34:6-7 and Lamentations 3:22-24

1. Reflecting on the Sermon:

- What resonated with you the most in this sermon about God's faithfulness?
- Did any specific stories or examples shared by the speaker stand out to you?

2. Personal Experiences:

- Can you share a personal experience where you felt God's faithfulness in your life?
- In what ways have you struggled to trust in God's faithfulness, especially in challenging times.

3. From God's word:

- Explore the Bible verses mentioned in the sermon (Exodus 34:6, Deuteronomy 7:9, Psalm 117:2, Hebrews 10:23, 1 Thessalonians 5:4, Numbers 23:19). How do these verses reinforce the theme of God's faithfulness?

- Are there other verses that come to your mind that emphasize God's faithfulness?

4. Promises of God:

- Discuss some promises of God mentioned in the sermon (promise of pardon, provision, presence, and plan). How do these promises bring comfort and confidence in your relationship with God?

5. Application to Daily Life:

- How can the understanding of God's faithfulness impact the way you face challenges and uncertainties in your daily life?
- In what practical ways can you express faithfulness to others as a reflection of God's faithfulness?

6. Mother Teresa's Quote:

- The sermon concluded with Mother Teresa's quote, "We are not called to be successful, but we are called to be faithful." How does this perspective on faithfulness align with your understanding of your Christian journey?

7. Encouraging Others:

- Share a story of someone in your life who has been faithful to you. How did their faithfulness impact you, and how can you encourage others through your faithfulness?

8. Application Challenge:

- What will you take away from this study and discussion and what difference might it make in your life?

Prayer idea: Heavenly Father, thank you for the assurance of your faithfulness that we've explored today. May we learn to rest in the unchanging nature of your character. May your promises of pardon, provision, presence, and plan guide our steps. Help us reflect your faithfulness in our lives, being consistent and reliable witnesses to your love. In moments of doubt, remind us that we are called to be faithful, not necessarily successful by the world's standards. Strengthen us to trust in your unchanging faithfulness. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.
