

2025 Conference – Save the date – 22 March

Bishop Condie, Bishop Calder and Dean Hodson following the synod service.

Bishop Calder launches Anglicare Central West

Bishop Condie launches HOPE25 at synod

In brief

HOPE25 – is an Australia-wide initiative across the Anglican Church of Australia, to inspire and equip us all to share our hope in Jesus with a world in pain! It runs from Easter to Pentecost next year and more information will follow.

Anglicare Central West was also launched at synod and will grow and develop Anglicare's ministry and impact across the diocese. A regional manager will be appointed to develop the ministry in partnership with our parishes! An exciting initiative to help us care for people and share Jesus for life.

Safe ministry training: Safe Ministry training expires every 3 years. Register now for these in-person sessions. Click for details: SM Training - Dubbo: Saturday 26th October 2024

SM Training - Temora: Saturday 2nd November 2024

Safe Families Sunday – 24 November. There'll be resources for services on the day e.g. prayers, as well as other material.

God willing, our next ordination will be held in our Cathedral on Sat 30 Nov at 11am – for the Rev'd Josh Taylor and Mr Luke Merriman. All welcome. Please be in prayer.

From our Bishop

Dear friends,

Synod gathered a month ago with a great sense of joy in being together and a sense that God is at work.

In my address to synod, I shared that I only have one agenda: Jesus. I want everyone in our churches to know, love, trust, serve, and share Jesus, and for those outside the church to hear of him, turn to him, and serve him and join us in sharing him.

I shared that in the past five years, I've learned these five lessons:

1. God's Amazing Grace: He has provided resources, workers, leadership, and his Spirit in ways beyond imagination.
2. Ministry is Hard: Especially in our country towns, where some struggle with fewer people, and some are hardened to the Gospel.
3. The Diocese is Vast: Remote congregations feel isolated, and there's potential to better support each other.
4. Clergy Aren't Rushing: Leaving city life and moving west is a challenge, but we need pioneers willing to make sacrifices.
5. People Are Hungry for God's Word: There is a growing desire for clear Bible teaching that transforms lives.

I have three years under our ordinance before I must retire. So I shared with synod, three prayers for three years:

1. Supply our needs: workers for the harvest and finances to support them.
2. Transform us: renew our hearts, deepen our love for Jesus, and equip us for your service.
3. Save the lost: soften hearts, open eyes, and lead many to trust in Jesus. Amen.

Please Pray

For our current ordination candidates – Luke Merriman and Josh Taylor – as they prepare for their ordination on 30 November.

Pray for our Diocesan staff – our bishop, Mark Calder, registrar, Warwick Baines, admin assistant, Louise Hickey, along with our casual staff – Alison Burge, assisting treasurers and Kath Thornhill improving our comms. Pray that each one would be sustained by God for their work, knowing that their labour is not in vain!

Join with Bishop Mark's 3 prayers

- Supply our needs: workers for the harvest and the finances to support them.
- Transform us: renew our hearts, deepen our love for Jesus, and equip us for God's service.
- Save the lost: soften hearts, open eyes, and lead many to trust in Jesus. Amen.

Pray for the Australia wide HOPE25 campaign, which will run from Easter to Pentecost next year. Pray that the Lord will use this to bring the hope, which is Jesus, to many people.

Parishes without clergy - that God will provide people to serve in Bourke-Brewarrina, Canowindra, Condobolin, Coolah-Dunedoo, Coonabarabran, Coonamble, Cumnock, Gilgandra, Nyngan, Trundle, Warren and West Wyalong; plus the funds to support them.

For Dubbo and the Cathedral parish – seeking assistant ministers for next year. Pray that the Lord will raise up the right people up for these roles.

Give thanks to God for the Rev'd Ross Craven's ministry as locum in Coolah-Dunedoo which has come to an end as Ross faces surgery in the coming months.
